From Mr C.R. Reddy - D.O. No 1/342 dd 22 2/20
Requests that the decision of Govt may be reconsidered for reasons given by him & the benefits of Chap XIV extended to him —

The matter has again to be considered in Council.

The reasons why it was held to be inexpedient to extend the concessions & offers wh already entitled them is that in bygone a uniform set of rules applies to all services and the exceptions are more a matter of a special character based on contract with individual European officers employed from abroad. In Br India the privileges are attached to special services as a whole but such services usually will now have only a very limited number of Indians.

The European Service rules are more liberal both as to ~~the~~ amount and frequency of leave and it is not clear on what grounds it is proposed to extend them to "all officers provided such leave is spent outside India". I am not sure if the mere fact that an officer proposes to spend his leave outside India is a sufficient reason to give him more leave and at more frequent intervals imposing additional cost upon Government.

I do not think it is right to view this question as one of racial discrimination. It cannot be denied that that the leave requirements of officers whose home is thousands of miles away from India and of those who are Indians are different. So long as it is necessary to employ Europeans, the maintenance of a separate set of rules adopted for meeting their requirements will be necessary. It seems to me that the remedy for cases like the present does not lie in bringing them under the European rules but in modifying the Indian Service rules with a view to remove the existing drawbacks in them. The Indian rules require to be made more liberal and elastic in their working. This matter requires separate consideration.

My dear Sir,

I request Government to be so good as to place me in the list of offi-cers entitled to the benefits of Long Leave under Chapter XIV of the Mysore Service Regulations and to give me six months Furlough beginning from 1st March next or such date thereafter as I may avail myself of, with permission to prefix the privilege leave on full pay which stands to my credit on such date, which I believe to be about 26 26 days.

If there is any intention on the part of Government to adopt the new rules sanctioned by the Government of India or to re-model the present rules on that basis, I request that I may be given the benefit of such revision.

Yours sincerely,

Camp Hassan. 22nd Feb. 1920

My dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No:734-P dated 16th February 1920, I beg permission to approach Government once again and to request them to be so good as to reconsider their decision in the light of the following considerations:-

(1) That in the rules pertaining to this subject in British India there is no distinction drawn on the score of race. If there is any distinction it rests on grade of service such as Imperial versus Provincial.

(2) In the revised rules adopted by the Government of India all racial distinctions have been completely removed.

(3) It is well known that the furlough rules for Indians contained in our regulations are so stringent that very few, if any, have been able to avail themselves of these provisions. Leave rests on two considerations -one personal and the other the interests of the service which are not promoted by forcing people who are too jaded in mind or body to continue to be in attendance in offices though they may not be in a position to put forth their best work. Whatever the principle I beg Government to reflect whether it is worth while keeping rules which are so singularly ill-adapted for the ends, whether personal or public, in view.

(3) It would not look nice if Mysore, an Indian State, should continue to retain a distinction of this kind when it is being given up all over British India.

(4) The distinction extends not only to the frequency of such leave but to the allowances. Under the "Indian" rules I shall be entitled to only Rs.500 per mensem while under Chapter XIV to Rs.635-6-8, as stated to me by the Comptroller.

(5) Though I do not like to appeal on personal grounds, I may be permitted to state that I was started in the Educational service on the minimum pay given to Europeans and that in other ways also I have special claims for inclusion. Further, it looks somewhat inviduous that an officer of my position should be excluded while others of inferior status are included.

As this raises a very important question of principle of special interest to Indians as a nation I request Government to be so good as to bestow every possible consideration and decide favourably.

On receipt of Government orders on this ~~subject~~ point I shall send my replies to the other questions contained in the D.O. under reference.

Yours sincerely,

C R Reddy
